

HE MAY SPEAK HERE.

Movement on Foot for a Big Meeting at the Auditorium.

REPUBLICANS FOR FREE SILVER.

Major Walker Resigns the County Chairmanship, and Judge Hughes Will Probably Support the Democratic Ticket—Street Gossip.

Almost the sole topic of conversation yesterday, at least among politicians, was the action of the National Democratic Convention, in Chicago. In the last few days there has been much talk among the Democrats. The anti-free-silver men are in a quandary, and while many of them say they will not desert the Democratic party, yet they do not hesitate to say that they hope McKinley will win the fight for the presidency. The silver people, of course, are jubilant at the outlook.

It is not the political world alone that is all agog over the result of the Chicago convention. The business-man and the banker are both in quite a high state of excitement. A tender chord was struck with them when the money question was touched upon, and many who before were content to let politics take their own course without much comment are now talking in tones clearly audible.

REPUBLICANS COMING OVER. There are many strong free-silver advocates among the Republicans, and a few of these have openly avowed their intention of voting the Democratic ticket. Judge Robert W. Hughes is known to be an enthusiastic silver man, and is slated over the selection of Bryan by the Democrats. The Judge's friends say that he will cast his vote for the boy orator.

Major Joseph Walker, for several years Republican chairman of Chesapeake and a member of the District Committee, will support the Democratic ticket. He has resigned his two positions and will not work for McKinley.

RETURN OF OUR DELEGATES.

Most of the Virginia delegates to the Chicago convention have returned home, holding over until the 15th of the ticket nominated and the platform on which the fight is to be made.

Mr. Robert G. Southall, of Amelia, one of the delegates from the Fourth District, stepped over in the city yesterday on his way home. He was pleased with what was done. "Bryan and Sewall will be elected," said he. "The West is going to stand by him, and if they don't elect him it will be the fault of the South."

Hon. W. B. Baker, of Chesterfield, one of the alternates from the Third District, has been to conventions before, but this was the greatest one he ever attended. Mr. Baker says Mr. Bryan's speech was the finest effort he ever listened to. Even the gold delegates had to applaud it. It is Mr. Baker's opinion that the ticket will sweep the country, and with the new administration will come prosperity.

A gentleman from Hanover told a reporter yesterday that he understood that Mr. Julian M. Ruffin and most of the other Populists in that county would give the Democrats their cordial support.

A gentleman from Petersburg, who was in Richmond yesterday, said he had heard from E. E. Yennie, state that he would not support Bryan. The Petersburg gentleman said, also, there were very many Democrats in his city who would either decline to vote or vote for McKinley.

BRYAN TO SPEAK HERE.

There is a movement on foot, which was really started at Chicago by Senator Daniel, to induce Mr. Bryan, the Democratic nominee, to come to Richmond in September and address a large meeting in the big Auditorium at the Exposition Grounds. Major Daniel will certainly return from his proposed trip to Europe in time to be present at the event if it can be arranged. Mr. Daniel's idea is to have excursions run here from other parts of the State, so that as many voters as possible may hear the silver leader.

THE RACE FOR CONGRESS.

The prospects now are that there will be four aspirants for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district this fall. Hon. Tazewell Elliott and George D. Wise will certainly run, while Mr. George P. Hays, of Lexington, is considering the matter of allowing his name to be used, as it is understood is also Senator Conway Davis. The latter was out of the city yesterday. Hays said to a Dispatch reporter that he had received numerous letters from his friends urging him to run as a candidate, but had not yet decided whether he would or not.

Bluff, of 69 County Records of the Franks Family in England, gift of A. D. Weld French, of Boston; (3) Tarrant's Campaigns, first edition, gift of M. B. Buford, of Boston; (4) Early Colonial Companies, gift of publisher; (5) a number of very valuable and rare Virginia books left the society by Dr. W. P. Palmer.

LOANS TO THE SOCIETY.

The following loans were also made the society: Oil portrait of Colonel M. A. Payce, of the British Army, a full set of the British Encyclopedia, and a very handsome clock. The last two loans were made by Mr. L. M. Robinson, to whom the portraits of the Spotswood, Dandridge, and Boone families now adorning the walls of the society's room belong. Since the last meeting of the committee 24 persons had registered on the society's books, while 182 persons had consulted the library-records. It is the most marvellously efficient medicine ever devised for this purpose and the only one that may be absolutely depended upon.

MR. MINOR A POLICEMAN.

He is Elected to Succeed Mr. Saunders—Thanks to the Force.

The Board of Police Commissioners held a called meeting in the office of Chief Howard, in the City Hall, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the present being Messrs. R. M. Taylor (president), J. W. Laube, C. G. Boshier, J. F. Jacob, L. C. Figg, Joseph B. Welsh, and D. A. Weinbrun. Mr. E. B. White, the clerk, was at his desk. The board went into an election to fill the vacancy on the force caused by the death of Policeman J. D. Saunders, of the First District, and Mr. P. G. Minor, formerly of the Fire Alarm Department, was unanimously elected to serve the unexpired term of the deceased, which expires July 1, 1897. There were about 150 applicants for the place, but the board chose this young Madison warder.

Judge Minor, with a party of ladies from the Confederate Memorial Literary Society, appeared before the body, and requested the board to station an officer on duty around the Museum. The clerk of the board was authorized to communicate with the secretary of that association, stating that the Chief of Police would instruct the officer on that point to report at the Museum every two hours during the night.

The following resolutions, offered by Messrs. C. G. Boshier and J. B. Welsh, were unanimously adopted: Be it resolved, That the Board of Police Commissioners herewith desires to place upon its records an expression of its appreciation for the correct and energetic attention to the duties assigned to the officers and men of the Police Department during the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans lately held in our city.

Be it resolved, further, That the clerk of the board be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Chief of the department, and also to the captains of the three districts, to be read before the force.

Some time ago Officer J. M. Sale was fined $2.50 by Chief Howard for having reported for duty late. Mr. Sale appealed the matter to the board, and Major Howard's action was sustained.

The City Mission's Noble Work.

(For the Dispatch.)

"Faith, hope, and charity; but the greatest of these is charity." Most nobly has Richmond done her duty during the late reunion, and truly did the noble old veterans (who fought so many battles to maintain their principles) deserve all that was done for them.

We come before the citizens now in behalf of numbers of the poor of the city, who are literally fighting the battle of (and for) life as suffering in many instances for food and clothing. Numbers of children are ill and needing medicine, milk, etc. Altogether a state of destitution exists. The ladies of the City-Mission work faithfully, but at powers now to give aid, as they have an empty treasury. All they can do is to ask the generous public to come to their assistance.

Donations, however small, can be sent to Mrs. A. J. Stokes, 15 east Franklin; Mrs. J. H. Claiborne, 612 east Leigh; Mrs. W. J. Lynham, 412 west Marshall; Mrs. Raleigh Colston, 13 north Sixth, or to the Dispatch office.

A MEMBER OF THE CITY MISSION.

Bathing the baby is one of the joys of young motherhood.

The mere sight and touch of the soft, sweet, cooing, crowing little creature is a source for many sorrows. This happiness is missed if either mother or child be sick, weak, nervous, cross. If either is so, it is the mother's fault. She has failed to keep herself well and strong during the period of gestation, and the neglect shows in her baby.

All the peculiar ills of womanhood are cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It relieves pain, allays inflammation, stops debilitating causes, strengthens and vitalizes the organs involved. It so perfectly prepares a woman for the time of parturition that pain and danger are practically eliminated. By its use perfect health is assured for mother and baby. It is the most marvellously efficient medicine ever devised for this purpose and the only one that may be absolutely depended upon.

Mrs. Amanda Ellison, of No. 2100 Houston St., Richmond, Va., writes: "I am so happy to say that I followed your advice and took your 'Favorite Prescription' before my fourth child was born. It cured me of all my troubles. I first thought I was still born. Your advice was to take the 'Favorite Prescription' and I had a much easier time when my next child was born. Now I have two boys living and they are as fine boys as there are in Springfield, Mo. I am the happy mother of the boys."
